Sermon Notes: Sufficient grace

How could Paul have the power and courage to turn cities inside out and couldn't fix his own problem? He prayed three times for God to remove this, take this away from me so I can do it. God I want you to take this away I would be better for you. Now we had debated about what the thorn in the flesh was for Paul. God leaves it opaque, so that we can fill in whatever you need to and recognize that all of us have something different that punctures us that makes us who we are that makes us groan and cry out to God.

You have to trust God when he says No. That the tougher the day is the greater the grace, the tougher the times are the stronger the strength. Trust God that his grace is sufficient.
